2. Before the interrogation, [] had been carefully briefed both orally and in writing to tell KLIMOVIC outright that we did not believe that he obtained the reports in the manner stated, that the reports were bogus, that passing false information to the AIS was in our eyes an extremely serious offense, and that if the matter were not cleared up to our entire satisfaction we would blacklist him for emigration in every western country. The following names were given to [] to question KLIMOVIC as to his true past and present relationships in detail: [] Isaac WEISS (fabricator), FRANTISEK RICHY (former member of the CIA, Mr. [] of IDO, Major [] (Prhala deputy for Austria), [] and [] (former Czech double agents), and J. [] (former associate). A listing of evaluations of subject's reports was also made available to []
